

Parish Council Code of Conduct

Accordingly, when acting in your capacity of as a Member or co-opted Member

- You must act solely in the public interest and should never improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person or act to gain financial or other material benefits to yourself, your family, a friend or close associate.
- You must not place yourself under a financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might seek to influence you in the performance of your official duties.
- When carrying out your public duties you must make all choices, such as making public appointments, awarding contracts or recommending individuals for rewards or benefits, on merit.
- You are accountable for your decisions to the public and co-operate fully with whatever scrutiny is appropriate to your office.
- You must be as open as possible about your decisions and actions and the decisions and actions of your authority and should be prepared to give reasons for those decisions and actions.
- You must declare any private interest, both pecuniary and non-pecuniary, that relate to your public duties and must take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest including registering and declaring interests in a manner conforming with the procedures set out in the box below.
- You must, when using or authorising the use by others of the resources of your authority, ensure that such resources are not used improperly for political purposes (including party political purposes) and you must have regard to the applicable Local Authority Code of Publicity made under the Local Government Act 1986.
- You must promote and support high standards of conduct when serving in your public post, in particular as characterised by the above requirement, by leadership and example.
- You must have regard to any relevant advice provided to you by Rushcliffe Borough Council's Monitoring Officer, or parish clerk where they are acting pursuant to their statutory duties.
- You must not disclose information given to you in confidence by anyone, or information acquired by you which you believe, or ought to reasonably be aware, is of a confidential nature, except where:
 - You have the consent of a person authorised to give it
 - You are required by law to do so

- The disclosure is made to a third party for the purpose of obtaining professional advice provided that the third party agrees not to disclose the information to any other person: or

The disclosure is:

- Reasonable and in the public interest and
 - Made in good faith and in compliance with the reasonable requirements of the authority.
-
- Members must promote equality by not discriminating against any person, and by treating people with respect, regardless of their race, age, religion, gender, sexual orientation or disability.

The Parish Council adopted the following Member Code of Conduct on the 7th January 2013